

I should've learned how to use junit correctly since I spent a longer time trying to fix it rather than doing the actual homework. The teaching staff was helpful and couldn't have done better. I learned more about the differences, advantages, and disadvantages between arrays and lists.